LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK,
August 30, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --
As per The Business Research Company's "Social Services Global Market Report 2022", the social services market size is expected to grow from $4422.02 billion in 2021 to $4918.06 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.2%. The growth in the social services market is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The social services market share is expected to reach $7250.40 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 10.2%. Training social service employees for autism child care counsellors, number of therapists and psychologists will increase and they are expected to serve more individuals and eventually generate more revenues.

Key Trends In The Social Services Market

Child day care centers are leveraging technologies to facilitate parents to stay connected with their children. According to the social services market insights, many daycare centers are using apps to provide video streaming of classroom activities and send pictures of kids to parents. This technology enables parents to monitor their child at the care center by accessing videos and pictures of kids at centers, which is predicted to be shaping the social services industry outlook. For instance, in Canada, Trust Child Care Centers partnered with Parent Care Network to provide video over the internet to parents to help them monitor child activities at the daycare center. Bloomz, Eleyo, OnCare, myKidzDay, KidCheck are some of the companies providing child care software, applications and technologies utilized by care service providers.
