

ONLY 4 WEEKS TO GO to attend the Future Armored Vehicles Survivability USA Conference 2022!

ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA, USA, August 30, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SAE Media Group invites all delegates interested in the area of survivability to attend the Future Armored Vehicles Survivability USA Conference, taking place in Arlington, VA, this September 26 – 27, 2022.

As the only exclusive armored vehicle conference in North America dedicated to survivability, the 2022 event will gather capability directors, commanders from the military, senior engineers, chief scientists, and platform managers from leading solution providers to discuss the US Military and Industry partners best practices to enhance the protection of their armored vehicles and personnel.

With ONLY 4 WEEKS TO GO, it is the last chance for delegates to secure their place for the conference. To register please visit: www.favs-usa.com/PR4/einnews.

Some of the key capabilities that will be covered include signature management, situational awareness, armored and blast protection, C-IED, vehicle obscuration systems, active protection systems and an overall picture of integrated survivability.

This event will gather military professionals and people interested in the area, with specific briefs been discussed and further explored around the Abrams, Bradley, NGCV, AMPV, OMFV, Stryker, JLTV, ACV, ARV and more.

Another great reason to attend is the benefit from the discussions to advance armored vehicles active defense capabilities and network with those at the heart of protective technology design, development, and integration.

Some of the expert US and International speakers presenting include:

- Major General Darren Werner, Commanding General, US Army TankAutomotive and

Armaments Command

- Brigadier General Thomas M. Feltey, Armor School Commandant, US Army Maneuver Center of Excellence
- Brigadier Ian Langford, Director General Future Land Warfare, Australian Defence Force
- Colonel Etienne Gauthier, Director Armoured Vehicle Program Management (DAVPM), Department of National Defence – Canada
