Musical and Spiritual, Selichot Service, which is Free and Open to the Community, Kicks off The Season on Saturday, September 17

These are the days that are known as the awesome days, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, where we gather as a community and pray together and meet each other once again”

Steinhardt, B'nai Torah Congregation*

August 30, 2022, Boca Raton, FL: B'nai Torah Congregation, the largest conservative synagogue in Southeast Florida, has announced the synagogue's High Holy Days schedule, which will take place in person after being held virtually the last two years. The deeply spiritual and meaningful services feature uplifting music, prayer and thought-provoking commentary and wisdom from Judaism's tradition and texts.

To accommodate the synagogue's diverse population, there will be a Main Sanctuary Service Featuring Rabbi David Steinhardt and Cantor Magda Fishman as well as a Family Service with Rabbi Evan Susman and Cantor Gaston Bogomolni. There will also be an Early Childhood Service catered specifically to young children and their families for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

“These are the days that are known as the awesome days, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, where we gather as a community and pray together and meet each other once again,” said Senior Rabbi David Steinhardt, B'nai Torah Congregation. “The last few years, we held the community together mostly through virtual programming – virtual classes, virtual services – and now we come back together in person. We realize how important it is to be able to be together, to learn together, to talk to each other and to sing together.”

All services take place at B’nai Torah Congregation at 6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33433.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services are available for B’nai Torah members and their guests. To become a member, please visit <https://www.btcboca.org/membership/> or contact Elysa Stark, Director of Programming and Membership at 561-392-8566 or ElysaS@bnai-torah.org.
