- Forecast Market Size (2027): USD 670.9 million

North America is probably going to be one of the most significant solar carport markets in the following years. As the average system price of solar carports continues to drop, commercial solar developers are increasingly providing consumers with greater value in the form of larger project sizes and more significant electricity savings. Additionally, trends surrounding vertical integration to lower structural costs are anticipated to define market growth. The industry is expanding as more people become aware of solar energy's benefits in nations like the United States. It is also projected that the growing production of electric vehicles would significantly contribute to the market expansion of solar carport in North America.

Solar Carport Industry Definition and Major Segments

Solar carports are a particular kind of carport that offers shade and protection for the vehicle. These units employ identical tools and techniques to ground-mounted solar panels. These are taller ground-mounted solar panels that are raised to fit a car below. Additionally, solar carports are made specifically to incorporate solar panels into its framework, serving the dual purpose of protecting the vehicle and generating clean energy.

Solar Carport Market Trends

The increased understanding of the value of solar energy is the main factor contributing to the expansion of the global market for solar carports. Additionally, the advantages offered by solar carports, such as increased flexibility, can be linked to market expansion. Solar carport electricity can be used for domestic uses, stored in batteries, and even converted into grid credits. Its production is comparable to that of other solar energy sources and the market is expanding as a result of this. Another element influencing the market's expansion is the ability of a solar carport to be designed to optimise the positioning of solar panels.

Key Market Players

The major players in the global solar carport market report are:

Nichiei Intec
SankyoAlumi
Schletter
GC Story
AG Japan
Yumesolar
Ecolohas Japan

The report covers the market shares, capacities, plant turnarounds, expansions, investments and mergers and acquisitions, among other latest developments of these market players.
