

SoftCo achieves SOC 1 Type 2 Compliance

SoftCo, a global leader in financial automation software, announced the successful completion of its Service Organization Controls (SOC) 1 Type 2 examination.

DUBLIN, D, IRELAND, September 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SoftCo, a global leader in financial automation software, today announced the successful completion of its Service Organization Controls \(SOC\) 1 Type 2 examination.

This announcement follows the successful completion of SoftCo's SOC 2 Type 2 examination in March 2022, meaning that SoftCo is both SOC 1 Type 2 and SOC 2 Type 2 compliant.

This SOC 1 examination follows our recent successful SOC 2 report and clearly demonstrates our continued commitment to providing customer solutions with the highest levels of security and compliance”

Anton Scott, CEO, SoftCo

SOC 1 is the internationally recognized auditing standard issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) which focuses on a service organization's controls likely to be relevant to an audit of a customer's financial statements. SoftCo retained Grant Thornton, a leading global audit, tax, and advisory firm, to perform its SOC 1 Type 2 examination. To achieve this certification, SoftCo demonstrated that its product, service, data, and information security adhere to the most stringent data protection regulations and laws.

Commenting, Anton Scott, CEO SoftCo Group, said:

“This SOC 1 examination follows our recent successful SOC 2 report and clearly demonstrates our continued commitment to providing customer solutions with the highest levels of security and compliance.”
