

MBBS in Philippines is Accepted In INDIA After the Announcement from CHED about New NMC Gazette

MBBS in Philippines is Officially Valid as per New NMC Gazette

CHENNAI, TAMIL NADU, INDIA, September 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The new NMC Notification, which was approved on November 18, 2021, listed four key factors to keep in mind when applying to any medical university overseas.

Initial Point. The MBBS course you take must be mandated taught in English at whichever university you choose to attend, regardless of the country you reside in.

Second, the medical curriculum in whatever country you desire to study must last 54 months, excluding any bridging or filling courses.

Third, the university you decide to attend must have a hospital, and the student must have finished a year-long internship there.

Last but not least, whichever nation the aspirant chooses to study medicine in should grant the local student a license to practice.

One country which is able to Qualify for all the above points and place themselves in the Top of the table is PHILIPPINES. The New Gazette according to CHED issued on August 31st 2022 clearly states that The Curriculum of Philippines has been changed from 48 Months to 54 Months and students who pursue are given License to Practice similar to citizens of Philippines.
