Bangalore, India, is home to SiZZmic Transmedia's new NFT programming and production office as part of their global expansion plans into the metaverse.

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, September 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SiZZmic Transmedia's Global Headquarters is announcing the opening of its new office in Bangalore, India. This office is a focusing on NFT (Non-Fungible Tokens) production. Equipped with the latest Metaverse creation technology (Unreal Engine 5, Unity, Omniverse, etc), our team is on the cutting edge of Metaverse content creation.

SiZZmic Transmedia, a family-friendly content creation Metaverse company, is experiencing a surge in demand for NFTS from artists, musicians, educators, and gamers making the opening of this office a strategic target.

The Bangalore office is led by Ludovic Mottini, who brings 35 years of IT, Project Management, and entrepreneur experience to the company. He moved to India in 2016 to enhance quality control for his clients. His motto is, "Keep pushing your goal, but don't forget to analyze your results!"

Mottini is partnered with Reshma Banu who contributes her expertise in hiring local to India-qualified talent. Together they have established the production line with multi-talented Metaverse programmers and can handle projects of any size providing rapid turnaround including help with last-minute projects.

"We are thrilled about the opening of the Bangalore, India, office among the other mixed reality and software giants there like Microsoft, Meta, Amazon, and Google. This global addition will
