

Minnesota Nurses Strike: What About the Patient - The Cost of Saving Lives

Recruiters and Nurses Across the Country Stand By to Care for Minnesotans

TAMPA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES,
September 5, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/
-- For more information or media
interviews please contact:

Allison Del Puerto
(813) 898-5105
ADelPuerto@ExciteHP.com

Member nurses of the Minnesota Nurses Association have voted to go on strike leaving patients at risk.

Fortunately, there are recruiters who stand ready to fill the gap. One such recruiter is Allison Del Puerto. Del Puerto is a recruiting veteran who has years of experience placing nurses around the country.

Allison Del Puerto, Professional Nurse Recruiter

Del Puerto said, "Whether the crisis is Covid, a strike or natural disaster, I take pride in ensuring the continuity of patient care, even amidst uncertain times."

“

It's my duty to make sure there are nurses to stand in the gap.”

Allison Del Puerto

In rapid-response situations, I never sacrifice quantity for quality. My nurses complete a thorough background check but are ready to fly at a moment's notice.

“None of us plan when we are going to have a healthcare emergency. Unfortunately, if an individual needs healthcare and the need happens to occur during a nursing strike, it's my duty to make sure there are nurses to stand in the gap,” said Del Puerto. Of course, this comes at a price and she is currently paying over $12,000 per week for nurses.

Allison Del Puerto hopes for a speedy resolution to the Minnesota nursing crisis. In the meantime, fortunately, there are recruiters and nurses standing by who are committed to taking care of the healthcare needs of Minnesotans.

Allison Del Puerto

+1 813-898-5805

ADelPuerto@ExciteHP.com

Allison Del Puerto, Professional Nurse Recruiter

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/589416704>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2022 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.