

CRB Monitor Partners with Sayari to Enhance KYC/AML Compliance Platform with Comprehensive Marijuana Business Data

The licensing agreement will integrate CRB Monitor's marijuana-related business data within the Sayari Graph platform.

NASHVILLE, TN, USA, September 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CRB Monitor, the nation's leading provider of cannabis corporate intelligence, announced today a new partnership with Sayari, the leader in data intelligence for financial crime prevention, supply chain transparency and national security missions. The licensing agreement will integrate CRB Monitor's marijuana-related business data within the Sayari Graph platform.

Sayari provides instant access to structured business information on over 426 million companies and 497 million of their key people in over 200 jurisdictions worldwide.

Steven Kemmerling, Founder & CEO of CRB Monitor, commented, "We are excited to announce our partnership with Sayari, which has engineered a best-in-class, purpose-built tool for navigating the complexities of corporate ownership and commercial relationships. By plugging into CRB Monitor's database, Sayari is improving transparency and expanding the ways it helps financial institutions, governments and multinationals mitigate risk and comply with KYC, AML, Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD), Sanctions, Beneficial Ownership, and Anti-Bribery & Corruption regulations."

Farley Mesko, CEO of Sayari said, "We are thrilled to connect CRB Monitor data into Sayari to empower our users with the most comprehensive and up-to-date cannabis business data available – backed by government data. The cannabis market is expected to top $33 billion by the end of 2022, and financial institutions are seeking efficient tools to stay compliant. By accessing CRB Monitor data directly through Sayari's platform, our partner financial institutions and service providers can better understand, identify, and manage cannabis-related risk and opportunity."
