Market Overview of Pharmaceutical Logistics :

Pharmaceutical logistics is a specific branch of logistics services in which service providers are focused on providing storage, transporting, proper handling and delivering the pharmaceutical products from the manufacturing location to the desired location. Pharmaceutical logistics need the services to be selected as per the regulations of products provided by the authorities.

The rapid shift in the inclination towards biological drugs is amongst the significant factors expected to fuel the growth and demand of pharmaceutical logistics market. In addition, the increase in the sales and consumption of pharmaceutical products which has been caused by high prevalence of chronic diseases and high growth in the target patient population are also anticipated to push the growth in the global pharmaceutical logistics market over the forecast period of 2021 to 2028. Likewise, the improved verification and safety of services as it prevent counterfeit drugs being distributed through the supply chain and high demand for specialized value-added services such as temperature-controlled and cold chain storage are also projected to lift the growth of the market. Furthermore, the increase in use of air freight logistics for long-distance and intercontinental distribution of valuable vaccines and medicines is also expected to act as significant factors which will flourish the growth of the pharmaceutical logistics market.

The high demand for Over the Counter (OTC) medicines, rapid rise in the importance of fast track assistance in the healthcare sector and various government initiatives are expected to offer significant growth opportunities for the pharmaceutical logistics market in the forecast period of 2021 to 2028.

However, the necessity of a coordinated and interlinked logistics services with complete secrecy in the supply chain of pharmaceuticals are estimated to limit the growth of the pharmaceutical logistics market, whereas, the inefficient products and fluctuation in the pricing policies from place to place across the globe can challenge the growth of the pharmaceutical logistics market.
