"TempStars has helped prevent the loss of millions of dollars in revenues by connecting hygienists and dental assistants to these offices," said Dr. James Younger, the CEO and founder of TempStars. "In many cases these introductions to temporary workers have also helped these offices identify full-time employees, creating stability and even more efficiencies."

With over 75,000 dental temping shifts completed and 97% of offices reporting being "Happy" or "Very Happy" with their TempStars connection, thousands of dental offices have come to rely on TempStars as "a strategic partner."
