We wanted people to walk out feeling empowered to follow their dreams!”

Patricia Boral

The Women's Leadership Luncheon was the sisters' first keynote address in June 2022, hosted by the Women in Alliance task force at the Economic Alliance Houston Port Region. During this event, they realized the impact of their speech, and decided to add Speaking Engagement Services as part of their offerings.

These Bolivian-born sisters know how it feels to build a business from the ground up. They've struggled and poured their hearts into Boral Agency's growth and success.

Patricia and Brenda want to give other entrepreneurs — especially those who don't have much experience or a mentor to fall back on — the knowledge and tools they need to succeed.

They're not interested in withholding their secrets or keeping things close to the vest. They believe in sharing what they know and lifting others, and they see speaking engagements as a perfect way to do so.

They are available to speak and/or present at:

- Colleges & Universities

- Business Conventions & Expos

- Organizational Meetups & Retreats

Patricia Boral Speaking at the Economic Alliance Port of Houston Lunch and Learn

“We wanted people to walk out feeling empowered to follow their dreams!” – Patricia said after delivering the keynote at the Economic Alliance Houston Port Region Women’s Leadership Luncheon.

The Boral sisters are eager to continue empowering and inspiring others.

They can’t wait to work with entrepreneurs and marketers to help them learn how to find their passion, promote their businesses, attract new customers, and enjoy long-term growth.
