

Sayers is proud to be named as a top IT service provider by CRN.

They were named amongst the top 500 service providers of the year.

VERNON HILLS, IL, UNITED STATES, September 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vernon Hills, IL: Sayers, a leading IT managed services provider, today announced it has been named a top Service Provider by CRN, a leading brand in the technology channel. Sayers has been named to the 2022 CRN Solution Provider 500 list, which recognizes the top solution providers in the country. Sayers, Inc. was ranked #164 on the most recent list of the top 500 companies in the world.

The company was recognized for its financial growth, strong performance and ability to innovate in a rapidly changing industry. The CRN SP2022 list recognizes the fastest-growing software companies in North America. The rankings are determined by a combination of organic growth and acquisitive growth, and Sayers' organic growth is what put them at #164 on the list.

Sayers is a leading provider of IT support and consulting services for small-to-medium businesses around the world. The company offers a full range of customized solutions including managed IT services, cloud migration, managed security services, IT asset management and more.

Sayers' growth can be attributed to the company's commitment to providing exceptional service and support. Sayers was founded on the belief that technology should never be a barrier in the way of business success.
