The Kickstarter begins today and ends on October 9th, 2022.

Secrets of the Sun King was inspired by my love for classic movie scenes like when Indiana Jones used a crystal staff to shoot a beam of light, revealing the Ark of the Covenant location.”

Treasure Troves Found*

“Secrets of the Sun King was inspired by my love for classic movie scenes like when Indiana Jones used a crystal staff to shoot a beam of light, revealing the Ark of the Covenant location,” said Brent Winters, President of Treasure Troves Found. “And who can forget when Brendan Fraser casually shoots the final mirror frame, lighting up that cavernous treasure room in The Mummy?”

In the game, players must defeat the evil Sun King by discovering a hidden laser embedded in his statue, then use mirrors to direct the beam to kill boss monsters, power up magic crystals, open portals, and more. The RPG game kit includes a 5e compatible adventure, a working Sun King statue with a hidden laser, six puzzle mirrors, magic and treasure cards, power crystals, and story-centered role-play props. All items are tucked inside a mysterious-looking themed package suitable for gifting.

Secrets of the Sun King is expected to ship in October / November to Kickstarter backers in time for the holiday season. A free 5e compatible role-play adventure is currently available at www.treasuretrovesfound.com.
