

Jackie Ricardo 2022 HFA Emerging Star Finalist

Jackie Ricardo, 2021 IFAH Global Award Recipient, also 2022 HFA Emerging Star Finalist.

ORLANDO, FL, USA, October 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Home Furnishings Association (HFA) 2022 Emerging Star Award Finalist lackie Ricardo, Vice President of Relax in Comfort and the 2021 International Forum on Advancement in Healthcare Global Award Recipient, was a finalist for the Home Furnishings Association (HFA) 2022 Emerging Star of the Year Award which recognizes exceptional young talent under the age of forty with exceptional contributions to the retail furniture business. Don DePaulis, President & CEO of Relax in Comfort stated "As the oldest back care & sleep specialty wellness store in America, Jackie brings a unique combination of medical knowledge combined with her extensive involvement in the wellness furniture industry. Most furniture is designed for eye appeal, however, our products are designed for proper ergonomics and promote wellness."

Non ergonomic, static sitting is the new smoking and poor quality sleep is even worse, both of which will significantly increase your mortality."

Jackie Ricardo, IFAH Global Award Recipient IFAH is one of the world's top healthcare conferences that explores the latest innovations in the industry. It comprises top achievers from the healthcare and wellness domain who are recognized for their contributions and provides a unique platform, which convenes entrepreneurs, innovators, and thought leaders, for networking and knowledge sharing amongst this elite group.

With Relax in Comfort as a licensed gallery for Furniture For Life, Jackie was able to blend her medical background with the top global brands of luxury massage chairs, zero gravity recliners, power adjustable number beds, and the X-Chair office seating. During the IFAH awards ceremony, Jackie said "I have a long history with medical companies, specializing in pain management and having an understanding of the human body and how ergonomics impacts the 1/3 of our lives we spend sleeping and the many other hours we spend sitting gives me the background to help those who suffer needlessly. Non-ergonomic, static sitting is the new smoking and poor quality sleep will significantly increase your mortality."

"The awards were unbelievably competitive this year as we had more nominees than in recent memory. The numbers reflect just how much incredible work is being done by retailers even in the face of COVID and supply chain challenges. Those finalists for the 2022 Emerging Star Award stood out in this deep pool of talent for their exemplary level of agility, innovation, and excellence. Their stories are inspiring," says Mark Schumacher, HFA CEO. The official announcement was made during the HFA annual membership meeting. HFA will be working to plan appropriate celebrations to honor each recipient in the coming months.

Winners were selected by a panel of industry judges, including past winners. The award recognizes lifetime achievements in the retail furniture business. The finalists were selected based on several factors, including:

- Contributions to the industry
- Philanthropy
- Mentoring
- Social responsibility
- Value to customers
- Recruitment and development of employees
- Company culture
- Marketing
- Achievements
- Social responsibility
- Innovation

DePaulis continued "we are extremely proud to have Jackie on our team. As a 3rd generation family business, we are committed to helping those who suffer needlessly from poor sleep and daily aches & pains. Jackie is a family treasure and we are blessed to have her involved in our organization. She provides insights not only for our corporate team but for the many customers she interacts with on a daily basis."
