

Electronic & Industrial Rock Band Cedars Announces New Late Summer Tour

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Industrial-Electronic rock band, Cedars, announced today their new tour with performances that take them from El Paso to the West Coast and Pacific Northwest and finally back to their home state of Texas. The tour will commence on Wednesday, September 7th, 2022 in El Paso, Texas at The Rockin' Bar at 9 PM. The tour will conclude on Wednesday, October 26th, 2022 in San Antonio, Texas at Sam's Burger Joint.

Cedars is a five-piece rock band from central Texas whose music incorporates the DIY ethos of bands like The Pixies and PJ Harvey, the haunting atmospheres of Radiohead and Nine Inch Nails, with the infectious grooves of MuteMath. They released "Circles" in early January 2022 and just released their latest single, "Womanking," last month.

Cedars 2022 Tour

Cedars is more than just a band - they are a vision of community driven by the idea that beauty can save the world. The band consists of Sandeigh Kennedy, Drew Heaton, Chris Santos, Chris Rodriguez, and Kaleb Perez. They blend industrial and organic textures, drawing together disparate elements to marry complex sonic landscapes with compelling stories.

Tickets will be available for purchase in advance or at the door for all shows and will feature special guests at select venues.
