The cleaners begin the cleaning process by moving any furniture out of the room. After this, they vacuum the entire carpet surface. A solution will be applied to the surface of the carpet to remove deep dirt and grime from the carpet fibres with either hot water extraction or using a dry-cleaning method, depending on the type of carpet. Once the cleaning is done, odouriser will be applied to freshen up and remove any smells from the carpet. Both cleaners ensure the carpets are protected with a stain repellent like Scotch guard.

We also provide rug, sofa, upholstery, mattress cleaning, as well as commercial cleaning and tenancy cleaning services in the area around London. They have eco-friendly cleaning methods and take all necessary measures to ensure the house is free from allergens without the use of harsh chemicals.

There is a complete guarantee on any cleaning works we undertake. Our professional guarantee means that we will re-clean if, within 24 hours, you have any complaints. We use safe cleaning products for kids, pets and environment.
