Determinants of growth-

Increase in the number of chronic diseases such as cancer, technological advancements in the healthcare sector, and rise in product launches as well as product approvals for radiosurgery systems drive the growth of the global radiosurgery systems market. Moreover, surge in adoption of key strategies such as collaboration, agreement, acquisition, and business expansion by the radiosurgery industry has been beneficial for the market.

Covid-19 scenario-

The majority of radiotherapy cases were either postponed or rescheduled due to conversion of surgical centers into Covid hospitals.

Thus, it caused scarcity of PPE kits for other surgical processes which impeded the market growth. At the same time, decrease in the number of diagnostic and investigation tests for cancer had a negative impact on the market.
