"Secondary Batteries Global Market

Report 2022", the secondary batteries market is expected to grow from $70.08 billion in 2021 to $82.03 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 17.1%. The growth in the secondary batteries market is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The secondary batteries market is expected to reach $146.61 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 15.6%. Increasing demand for electric vehicles will positively impact the secondary batteries market.

Key Trends In The Secondary Batteries Market

Recent developments in NiMH battery manufacturing have improved the lifespan of nickel-metal hydride batteries. The electro positivity of the A-elements makes them easy to be corroded in the alkaline electrolyte used in NiMH batteries. A thin protective layer is used on alloy particles to improve reaction kinetics and corrosion stability of conventional NiMH batteries.

Overview Of The Secondary Batteries Market

The secondary batteries industry consists of sales of secondary batteries and related services that are used in portable devices, electronics, and motor vehicles. Secondary batteries are electrical batteries which can be charged, discharged and recharged multiple times. Secondary batteries include Lithium-ion, lead-acid, Nickel Metal Hydride (NiMH) based secondary batteries. Secondary batteries are highly cost-efficient in the long term and are environment friendly.

Secondary Batteries Global Market Report 2022 from TBRC covers the following information:

Market Size Data

- Forecast period: Historical and Future
- By region: Asia-Pacific, China, Western Europe, Eastern Europe, North America, USA, South America, Middle East and Africa.
- By countries: Australia, Brazil, China, France, Germany, India, Indonesia, Japan, Russia, South Korea, UK, USA.

Market Segmentation

- By Product Type: Lead Acid, Lithium-Ion (Li-Ion), Nickel Metal Hydride, Others
- By Application: Electronics, Motor Vehicles, Portable Devices, Others
- By End-User: Automotive, Household, Industrial
- By Geography: The global secondary batteries market is segmented into North America, South America, Asia-Pacific, Eastern Europe, Western Europe, Middle East and Africa. Among these regions, Asia-Pacific holds the largest share in the market.

Major market players such as BYD Company Ltd., Samsung SDI Co. Ltd., LG Chem Co. Ltd., Johnson Controls, Amperex Technologies Ltd., Energizer Holdings Inc., Panasonic Corporation, Aquion Energy, Battery Technology Inc., and Beckett Energy Systems.

Trends, opportunities, strategies and so much more.

Secondary Batteries Global Market Report 2022 is one of The Business Research Company's comprehensive reports that provides secondary batteries global market outlook. The market report analyzes secondary batteries global market size, secondary batteries global market growth drivers, secondary batteries global market segments, secondary batteries global market major players, secondary batteries global market growth across geographies, and secondary batteries market competitors' revenues and market positioning. The secondary batteries market report enables you to gain insights on opportunities and strategies, as well as identify countries and segments with the highest growth potential.
