

Apollo Med Innovations Announces Fall PDO Thread Training Schedule with New Training Incentives

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Apollo Med Innovations, Inc. (Apollo) is proud to announce its fall 2022 PDO thread training schedule with new incentives for attendees. Apollo continues to provide the most comprehensive and in-depth hands-on PDO thread training classes led by some of the country's leading PDO thread physicians.

We take our commitment to providing quality education to the medical community seriously so in addition to the world-class training experience, we are offering discounted Nitronox or ProNox systems”

Randy Wright, CEO

Now for a limited time only, in addition to a uniquely designed thread package for all attendees, Apollo is offering attendees discounts on Nitronox™ or ProNox systems for attending practitioners. Nitronox is a proven treatment for safely and effectively managing patient pain and anxiety.

“We take our commitment to providing quality education to the medical community extremely seriously and, therefore, in addition to the world-class training experience practitioners have come to expect from Apollo, we are offering discounted Nitronox or ProNox systems to improve patient comfort,” said Randy Wright, CEO, Apollo Med Innovations, Inc.

Apollo's PDO thread courses are designed for those medical professional new to PDO threading or anyone currently trained in PDO threads but wanting to build onto that base of practice. Leading PDO thread practitioners will share their techniques to achieve superior results for all traditional modalities as well as a number of areas in the body and the use of AMI specialty threads in the face and body.

“I highly recommend the Apollo training courses for anyone looking to add PDO threads to their practice” said Donald Balder, MD, FACS, Founder Mississippi Institute of Weight Loss Surgery, “After taking this course, PDO threads are now a meaningful part of my practice. My patients are getting great results with AMI PDO threads and the return on investment is fantastic.”
