size reached a value of US$ 19.13 Billion in 2021. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach a value of US$ 24.77 Billion by 2027 exhibiting a CAGR of 4.10% during 2022-2027.

Lawn and garden consumables include various products used for the landscaping and regular maintenance of lawns and gardens. Some commonly used lawn and garden consumables are seeds, mulch films, pesticides, fertilizers, and growing media. They provide various benefits, such as improving the soil structure, trapping stormwater runoff, suppressing carbon emissions, preventing the overgrowth of plants, controlling weed growth, cleaning the air while maintaining a healthy environment, and increasing the aesthetic appeal of the space. They also help filter dust and other pollutants from the air as they reduce soil erosion, control pollution, and enhance indoor air quality. As a result, they are extensively adopted across the commercial, residential, and industrial sectors.

Lawn and Garden Consumables Market

Lawn And Garden Consumable Market Trends and Drivers:

The market is primarily driven by the increasing consumer inclination toward landscaping, home gardening, and home decor. In addition, the rising construction activities of commercial and residential buildings are contributing to market growth. Moreover, the emerging trend of transforming outdoor spaces into lounges, entertainment areas, party sports, outdoor kitchens, and relaxing areas represents another major growth-inducing factor.

Apart from this, with the improving lifestyles, inflating disposable incomes and rapid urbanization, individuals are widely spending on various landscaping products, including gazebos, plants, and water fountains, which is providing a positive thrust to the market growth.

Furthermore, the development of advanced lawn and garden consumables that offer improved efficiency and convenience, the expanding real estate sector, the implementation of favorable government policies, and the increasing investments in urban green spaces and parks are some of the other factors creating a positive market outlook across the globe.
