

Women of Color Entrepreneur Inaugural $5k Grant Awarded to Five Outstanding Recipients

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2022 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Corporate Counsel Women of Color, awarded five worthy recipients, the Women of Color Entrepreneur Inaugural $5k Grant. There were nearly 2,000 grant submissions for this prestigious award.

According to an article in Forbes Magazine, "Black women represent 42% of new women-owned businesses — three times the share of the female population — and 36% of all Black-owned employer businesses." Below is a listing of the five winners who rose to the top to receive the $5k grants.

The five dynamic businesses chosen to receive the $5k grant are:

- Glow + Flow Beauty Supply is a chain of beauty supply stores that sell everything from hair care supplies, human hair, braiding hair, cosmetics, and personal health and wellness products. Glow + Flow is a safe place for Black women and young girls to come and embrace their beauty no matter the shape, shade, or size.
- Serial entrepreneur Katherine Thompson's first venture was Quality Galore in 2019. She got into this line of business when she realized there was a way to make money online. Soon after, she sold medical equipment and supplies online. She is now a government contractor and has sold to several state departments and cities.
- Labor and Love was developed to ensure a supportive, health professional-led community before, during, and after your pregnancy. They offer professional birth doula services and childbirth education for all expectant families, and postpartum doula support to help your family adjust to life with a newborn.
