About JediVite®

JediVite® is a dynamic, innovative, and forward-thinking Women-owned business; its goal is to commit to saving our beautiful Earth and making a real difference in how we view vitamins and supplements.

The Founder of JediVite® grew up in South Africa, where she observed staggering levels of under-nutrition due to people not receiving enough nutrients and vitamins in their daily life. When she moved her family to Europe in 2019, she was shocked and disheartened to discover a similar trend occurring on the opposite end of the spectrum; people were experiencing severe over-nutrition and suffering from symptoms such as weight gain, fatigue, anxiety, and insomnia to name a few.

Seeing the negative impact and sheer reach of malnutrition worldwide caused something to resonate within The Founder of JediVite®, who knew in her heart that something needed to change. As a loving mother and ambitious entrepreneur; she decided it was time to bring about real change and sought to create a brand and a product that would unite people and help cleanse the planet of malnutrition.

JediVite® was born in 2021 with an objective: to bring a safe, highly effective, all-in-one multivitamin with good morals to the global health market with a mission to lead people to a happier, healthier, and more sustainable future. Today JediVite® proudly introduces the new tasty JediVite® Super Multivitamin Gummy, the Worlds first Vegan, Halal, Sugar-Free Multivitamin Gummy that includes all the trending, essential nutrients doctors are recommending that are safe and suitable for the whole family.

JediVite's team of experts is passionate about the products they produce. JediVite® company is built on values of integrity and excellence, and our products set the new gold standard for quality and effectiveness and will revolutionize the way people live.

Jedivite has been certified to be safe by HACCP Food Safety, GMP Good Manufacturing Practise, IFS Food, ISO Company, and other major brands to be safe. Making your family's health the number one priority in each production and manufacturing. The gummy supplement can be taken by anyone.

Supermarkets and Pharmacies around the World are making space on their shelves for JediVite® Premium Vitamin Gummies for Adults and Kids.
