One of the Arizona's best in hardwood flooring companies has gone green.

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, September 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Representatives with Blackhawk Floors, Inc. announced today that it has gone green and now uses VOC-free adhesives.

"This means that it's non-toxic to you and your family and empowers you with the safest option available," Jason Elquest, owner and spokesperson for Blackhawk Floors.

As it relates to VOC-free adhesives in the flooring, Elquest explained VOCs describe floor coverings, underlayments, and adhesives which release minimal emissions and are safer for those who consistently come into contact with them. In addition to using VOC-free adhesives, Blackhawk Floors has over 800 samples on display in its wood flooring showroom.

"We invite everyone to visit our beautiful wood flooring showroom," Elquest said. "We are located in the Zocallo Plaza in North Scottsdale."

Elquest said patrons will be delighted to find a wide selection of wood flooring ideas, including solid, engineered, and reclaimed hardwood floors.
