EINPresswire.com/ -- Life is but a journey, a journey of the soul. Every experience can mold and provide one's lessons for the soul's growth. Every experience prepares each person for the path yet to embark upon. Tracey Escobar's new book You Can Be A Medium: How a Red Couch Led Me to Mediumship and Turned my Pain into Purpose, gives the reader a glimpse into the journey of the author that led her to become a professional Psychic Medium. From childhood abuse, the untimely passing of her father, the years of unhealed trauma, and absence of self-love, to choosing to heal and finding a purpose for her pain.

You Can Be A Medium: How a Red Couch Led Me to Mediumship and Turned my Pain into Purpose

Through her healing journey, the author describes being led by the spirit of her father through countless dreams, premonitions, synchronicities, and undeniable experiences to become a Medium and to live a purposeful and happy life. Tracey's journey to the Red Couch is a riveting story of triumph and a testament that it is never too late to heal and find joy.

This book is filled with raw emotion, hard truths, and will be an inspiration for anyone looking to heal from past trauma and to find purpose in their life. Intertwined with the author's story, there are practical advice, teachings, and exercises to help you develop your own mediumistic gifts.
