and CEO at Marlabs*

CoreStack, a global multi-cloud governance provider that empowers enterprises to unleash the power of the cloud, today announced a global partnership with Marlabs, a leading global digital solutions company. The partnership will integrate the expertise of both companies, bringing extensive digital transformation for their shared customer base to help them stay competitive through increased digital agility.

Marlabs will implement CoreStack’s AI-based real-time cloud governance engine in its Cloud Management Platform, allowing its customers a 360-degree broad and deep visibility across cloud financial management (FinOps), security operations (SecOps), and cloud operations (CloudOps) in an integrated single pane of glass. Marlabs will be hosting this solution in the Marlabs Experience Center in Bengaluru, India, to enable clients leverage the power and value of the solution.

CoreStack's AI-powered multi-cloud governance solution has provided customers with transformational outcomes with its NextGen cloud governance fabric. Implementing their technologies have led to fifty percent increases in cloud operational efficiencies, forty percent decreases in cloud costs, and one-hundred percent compliance with security standards.

“We have a strong focus on cloud-powered IT management, and this partnership with CoreStack is a concrete step to our commitment in that direction,” said Siby Vadakekkara, Chairman and CEO at Marlabs. “We are excited to collaborate with CoreStack and implement and support their ground-breaking FinOps, SecOps and CloudOps offerings as part of our Cloud Management Platform.”

“As Marlabs’ global partner, we will get a chance to enable our joint customers to manage the cloud proactively and confidently, across key verticals like healthcare, life sciences, fintech, retail, and technology,” said Ezhilarasan Natarajan, Founder and CEO at CoreStack Inc. “We are thrilled to partner with them, and we are looking forward to extending our award-winning NextGen Cloud Governance platform to their customers while drawing on their extensive digital expertise to help businesses around the world.”
