LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK,
September 20, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- As per The Business Research Company's "Marble Global Market Report 2022", the marble market is expected to grow from $26.01 billion in 2021 to $28.74 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 10.50%. The growth in the marble global market is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The global marble market size is expected to reach $43.19 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 10.72%. The rising building industry is expected to drive the marble consumption in building and decoration applications.

Key Trends In The Marble Market

New product launches is a key trend gaining popularity in the marble market. Companies are increasingly focusing on making and developing new marble products with improved quality.

Overview Of The Marble Market

The marble global market consists of sales of marble by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that are involved in cutting, shaping, and finishing marble for building and other purposes. Marble is a metamorphic rock formed from limestone, and recrystallized carbonate minerals, most commonly calcite or dolomite. Marble is commonly used for sculpture and as a building material. In crushed stone form, marble is used as an aggregate in building foundations, highways, and railroad beds.
