How I Met Your Mother) with Sera-Lys McArthur (Outlander), Julie Dove, Clio Contogenis, Veronica Kelly, sisters Raffaella Capp and Natasha Capp (Four Cousins and a Christmas), Chris Roach (Kevin Can Wait), Tori London (The Waitress) rounding out the cast; and introducing Taylor Red Fox as Tahoma.

The intriguing psychological thriller tells the story of Jamie (Nia Sioux), a fresh out of high school graduate who wishes to enjoy her last summer home and her 18th birthday at the Lake with her friends. Overshadowed by the one year anniversary of her brother's drowning, her estranged relationship with her father (Seth Gilliam), her mother's mental health issues (Sera-Lys McArthur), and unexplained supernatural occurrences that haunt the once happy Schultz family. Jamie certainly will not get the summer she was hoping for, or expecting. Dare to take a dip?

“As a filmmaker, I’ve always wanted to share my experiences growing up on Lake Ronkonkoma and in line with my interest in identity formation and personal experience with grief’s effect on the family; I wrote a psychological thriller. The main character, Jamie Schultz, happens to have lineage that is traceable to the original people of the Lake. I combined the supernatural component with a family suffering from a tragic loss while being haunted by this so-called “Legend”, said Maria Capp, writer, director, and producer of the film.

Most recently, Maria produced and co wrote the feature film, “Reach” and had her directorial debut with the holiday feature “Four Cousins and a Christmas”. She is represented by Sean Pope at Ramo Law and Michelle Zeitlin at More Zap Productions and Management.

The Producing team includes Maria Capp, Kristi Kilday, Donna Drake and Steven Alan Capp as Producers; Rick Eberle, Leif Easterson and Chris Schmidt as Associate Producers; Jay Klaitz and Gayle Waxenberg of NewYorkRep as Executive Producers. This project was cast by Liz Lewis Casting Partners.

Gilliam’s most recent notable credits include The Walking Dead, Teen Wolf and Starship Troopers. He is represented by The Gersh Agency and McGowan Rodriguez. Sioux is most known for her appearance on the show Dance Moms but more recently has starred in the feature Runnin’ from My Roots. She is represented by A3 Artists Agency and Scope Entertainment.
