clubs, and help increase customer bases—affluent families, boat owners, and retirees—find boat clubs. There are 2 strategies used, which include organic SEO for local customers and paid advertisements for non-local.

Local SEO is used for local customers because Google is very strict about its organic rankings. Unless the online presence is already very strong, it is difficult to rank a website in areas that are not local to the business. For this reason, we use a paid marketing strategy on Google to reach customers outside of the local area.

Enjoying Boat Ride

Social media advertising is an avenue that is often overlooked by boat clubs. What makes social media a great source of leads for boat clubs is we can create advertisements that put companies in front of boat owners and dealers.

In the United States, there are over 30 million small businesses. These are businesses that provide jobs, offer essential goods and services, and positively influence their communities.

Our business was founded on helping small businesses thrive, and is our core principle to build and develop these companies across America.

As more people are turning to search engines for local information on their favorite products and services, it's important that businesses keep up with the latest trends in online marketing.

Streamline Results offers conversion-driven local SEO services to ensure businesses ranks high in SEO local search queries and achieves revenue growth.
