Platinum Inc, sponsor of Paula Reto congratulates her on winning the CP women's Open. Paula's first career victory on the LPGA Tour

NEW YORK, NY, USA, September 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Paula Reto won her first LPGA Tour tournament at the Canadian Women's Open on August 28, 2022, scoring 62-69-67-67=265 (-19), for a one-stroke win over Nelly Korda and Choi Hye-jin. The initial round 62 was a record at that tournament.

The CP Women's Open is a women's professional golf tournament managed by Golf Canada. It has been Canada's national championship tournament since its founding in 1973 and is an official event on the LPGA Tour <https://www.lpga.com/news/2022/paula-reto-wins-2022-cp-womens-open>

In her 157th start on the LPGA Tour, Paula Reto finally became a champion. The 32-year-old from South Africa, who now makes her home in southern Florida, knocked in a two-putt par on No. 18 at Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club to capture the 2022 CP Women's Open. Reto, a nine-year LPGA Tour veteran, finished at -19 overall, one stroke ahead of Nelly Korda and Hye-Jin Choi and two strokes clear of Lydia Ko.

"I'm really, really excited and just proud of myself for being able to stick through the shots and the routines. Sometimes I find that's really hard to do, especially if you know you have only a few holes left," said Reto. "But I was really nervous, especially I started pulling a few shots and I told myself, okay, just stay in the moment and breathe. You go through all those things that you think will help." Reto exclaimed after her victory.

"Platinum Inc has developed a relationship with Paula Reto over the past 4 years, which includes sponsorship. All of us at Platinum Inc are very proud of her outstanding accomplishment of having won her first LPGA tour tournament", said Platinum's CEO Jim Halpin.
