Despite the seemingly amazing figures, the relatively high charges by spas continue to hinder people from getting their desired hair removal treatment. However, Berta and her team at Five Star Laser Spa have ensured that the men and women of New York do not suffer a similar fate, uniquely combining quality with relative affordability.

Five Star Laser Spa offers a wide range of laser hair removal treatments, leveraging the expertise of the team of specialists and state-of-the-art laser machines to meet the varying needs of clients, irrespective of skin type. The categories of treatments offered by Five Star Laser Spa include face and body, touching different areas, such as chin, ears, forehead, full face, abdomen, areola, back, bikini line, buttocks, chest, arms, legs, and a host of others.

The unique combination of relative affordability, comprehensiveness, and quality service delivery has made Five Star Laser Spa the go-to solutions provider for hair removal, with accolades coming from different categories of clients across New York. "I highly recommend this place. Berta is very knowledgeable and experienced. She is always attentive to any of my concerns and makes me feel very comfortable doing the laser sessions. She has the best machine that blows cold air and makes it painless for me. After only two sessions I saw great results and my only regret is that I didn't do this sooner, if I had known how amazing it is to be stress free and not have to worry with shaving and waxing. Laser is the way to go and Five Star Laser Spa is great. Thank you Berta! You are the best!" - Roxana E.
