We're so excited about 40 highly accomplished Arab Americans under the age of 40. They are the empowering force making significant progress in the Arab American community and the community at large”

Warren David, President, Arab America

40 Under 40 is a celebration of accomplished young Arab

Americans. The program spotlights Arab American professionals in all fields and business sectors, including education, law, public service/politics, non-profit, business leaders, entrepreneurs, engineers, medical professionals, artists, entertainers, writers, and media representatives. These young professionals have great achievements both in the workplace and in their communities.

"We're so excited about 40 highly accomplished Arab Americans under the age of 40. They are the empowering force who are making significant progress in the Arab American community and the community at large," said Warren David, co-founder of the Arab America Foundation and president of Arab America. "We are truly honored to recognize them here and in person at our upcoming National Summit on Nov. 4-6."

All awardees are under the age of 40, excel in their industry, and are engaged in promoting their heritage and culture to empower their communities and make a difference. The competition is open annually to all professionals who live and/or work in the United States and are of Arab descent.

The Arab America Foundation and its board are grateful for the leadership of the initiative's coordinators, Nabelah Ghareeb and Samar Sakakini, as well as the prestigious panel of judges.

The 40 Under 40 awardees for the class of 2022 will be honored at the CONNECT Arab America: Empowerment Summit from November 4-6, 2022, in Falls Church, VA.

The Arab America Foundation \(AAF\) is a non-profit (501c3) educational and cultural organization. The mission of AAF is to promote the Arab heritage, empower and educate others about the Arab identity, connect Arab Americans, and build coalitions with diverse organizations across the U.S.
