LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, September 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shelton Wilder recently brought her real estate team together at Alexandria House to provide a night of food, entertainment, and fun for all. Alexandria House is a nonprofit organization/home providing safe and supportive transitional housing for women and children moving from emergency shelters into permanent housing and economic stability.

"I have so much respect for the amazing work Alexandria House does every day and for all the inspirational women I met here tonight," said Shelton. "I'm truly humbled by the opportunity to support an organization providing such critical services in our community."

The team arrived with dinner for all from their favorite taco guy, Christian, of TEC Catering and had the LA, Kona shaved ice truck stop by for a special treat. They also hired Nathan and James from Positive Impact Movement (of America's Got Talent fame) and presented each child with a special gift.
