

HireGenics and Volt Introduce Art Knapp as New Chief Executive Officer

ATLANTA (DULUTH), GA, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HireGenics, a contingent workforce acquisition solution provider, and Volt Information Sciences, a commercial and professional staffing solutions provider, have announced the appointment of industry veteran Art Knapp as Chief Executive Officer.

Widely known and respected within the industry, Art Knapp is a proven leader who will help Volt and HireGenics to further cement our position as a top supplier for all our customers.”

Raj Sardana, CEO, ACS Solutions

With over two decades of experience designing, building, and running many of the staffing industry’s largest managed service providers (MSPs), Knapp will guide HireGenics and Volt—both members of the ACS Group—as they continue to grow and innovate within the staffing and MSP sectors. Relying on his extensive knowledge of time-tested best practices and innovation, Knapp plans to enhance the acquisition of talent while delivering a lower total cost of ownership as he begins his new role on October 3.

Raj Sardana, CEO of ACS Solutions, remarked, “Widely known and respected within the industry, Art Knapp is a proven leader who will help Volt and HireGenics to further cement our position as a top supplier for all our customers. In his new role, Knapp’s experience running top MSPs will provide a unique perspective and allow us to drive and shape clients’ next-generation talent needs.”

“I’m thrilled by this opportunity to lead both HireGenics and Volt. We have an incredible team of industry experts already in place, and I’m looking forward to working with them to bring further innovation to the MSP space with a focus on service excellence,” Knapp stated.

With a “people first” culture, HireGenics and Volt will continue to deliver total talent solutions designed to add value and provide clients with a competitive advantage in the war on talent.
