

OP360 Celebrates Diversity and Inclusivity

OP360 Diversity Ball: A Community Celebration of Inclusive Culture

CEBU CITY, PHILIPPINES, September 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OfficePartners360 (OP360) ended its month-long Pride celebration with its Diversity Ball on Saturday, July 2nd, at the Waterfront Hotel Pacific Grand Ballroom. A highlight of the event was the gender-inclusive Diversity Showcase, which involved employees competing in various segments for the title of the OP360 Diversity Champion.

From the Pride-inspired opening production to the insightful answers to questions on diversity and inclusion, the contestants brought the best of the company's culture to the forefront.

OP360 celebrates diversity and inclusivity.

Being an equal opportunity employer, OP360 takes and maintains affirmative action to advance diversity in the workplace and nurture the inclusion of all our employees.”

*David Highbloom, OP360
Chief Administrative Officer*

Adding color to the event were performances by Battle of the Bands contestants singing their covers of songs that advocate for and celebrate LGBTQIA+ causes.

The OP360 Diversity Ball emphasizes the company's efforts to nurture a work environment that supports and empowers employees to be their authentic selves. OP360 reinforces its commitment to diversity by providing health coverage for common-law and same-sex partners as dependents as well as integrating diversity and equality awareness training into every new hire's onboarding experience. Reflecting the power of inclusivity in business, women also represent 45% of leadership roles.

“We realize this commitment tonight at the OP360 Diversity Ball, a celebration of our amazing people, the vibrant culture that unites us, and the actions that bring us closer to our communities.”, said David Highbloom, Chief Administrative Officer.

OP360 is an active member of the Philippine Financial and Inter-Industry Pride, the largest network of LGBTQIA+ employee resource groups in the country, and remains steadfast in promoting the increased visibility of its diverse workforce.
