*Award-Winning Artist and Composer
Gabriele Saro's Music Heard Worldwide*

USA, September 16, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Gabriele Saro is an award-winning artist and composer, always motivated by two different attitudes: a rational scientific side, an artistic and creative side. He has a scientific high school diploma and a Degree in Business Administration, a Diploma in Violin and a Master in Music in Composition for Film: different paths, but Gabriele manages to combine them perfectly. These are just some of Gabriele's interests, those that influenced his artistic career: anthropology, biology and science fiction ... but the most important activity that distinguishes his days is undoubtedly music and composition.

He is a composer awarded in national and international composition competitions, both for serious music and for pop music (among many, winner of the UK Songwriting Contest and TOP 10 in 2 editions at the USA Songwriting Competition - about 50 prizes in all, counting the semifinals, the most awarded young composer in Italy). As a Producer he was Nominated for the 2022 GRAMMY Nominations. On the Digital Stores dozens of albums and compilations such as Gabriele Saro
