The first series will be directly linked to the flagship One Nation Cafe in Munich, Germany.

After nearly three years of planning, owners Dennis Stolper and Kellen Miller were thrilled to share what they're calling a “new, innovative way to invest in real business on the blockchain.”

NFT owners will earn monthly dividends based on the success of the cafe franchise location, and more cafes are due to open in the coming year.

The first One Nation cafe opened in December 2021. The One Immortl team is already in the process of opening an additional cafe in Phoenix, Arizona, with Dubai and Portugal on the roadmap.
