COLORME Artist Debra Lee Murrow Creates One-of-a-Kind Art Piece for the "Making The World A Cooler Place" Award

TEMPE, AZ, USA, September 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Making the world a cooler place is an aspiration many of us would love to pursue. That's exactly what COLORME Art Spa founder and artist Debra Lee Murrow thought when she was commissioned by PriceMyAC.com to create an original art piece for the company's August 2022 "Making the World a Cooler Place" award.

"Wow! I said when I heard about the "Making the World a Cooler Place" award," said Debra Murrow. "Isn't that what we should strive for, to contribute to our communities? I was thrilled to be chosen as the artist to create the award for the program. It's a wonderful series that honors amazing people, and I'm delighted to be a part of this noble endeavor."

PriceMyAC.com awarded Debra Murrow's colorful unique art piece (seen here) to Julie Armstrong, a long standing Tempe community activist and volunteer. Ms. Armstrong was chosen for her active service and valuable contributions in community organizations and causes, after a career spent in community relations, HR management, thought leadership, and business development.

PriceMyAC.com launched the "Making the World a Cooler Place" awards at the beginning of summer 2022 in order to honor ordinary citizens who humbly and quietly make an impact through community service, volunteering, and philanthropy.
