

CXC Announces Enhanced CXC Comply UX and AI Driven Compliance Solutions

CXC improves functionality and performance to CXC Comply for engaging domestic and global contingent, independent, SOW and corp. to corp contractors.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, September 19, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- CXC Global is pleased to announce user experience (UX) enhancements and AI driven classification to CXC Comply, our proprietary SAAS based global independent, freelancer and self-employed contractor compliance platform.

CXC Comply is now live and being utilized in over 50 countries globally for comprehensive contractor classification, compliance and right to work checks. CXC Comply allows global corporations and contingent workforce management companies to mitigate and eliminate all misclassification risks associated with engagement of remote independent, freelance and Corp. to Corp. contractors.

The most recent UX enhancements afford both the contractor and company utilizing the contractor a dashboard approach to monitor and launch contractor vetting instantly.

These enhancements have been developed in partnership with companies utilizing CXC Comply that are in the online language, global information and analytics, medical device, web services and multiple software services industries.

The individual contractor right to work and classification vetting is all technology driven,
