Laith Al-Saadi live at CannaJam Festival

The Cannajam Festival last year was the city of Ypsilanti's first licensed event. Festival organizers chose the location because of the city's leadership in welcoming the industry.

"This 2nd annual event will feature entertainment and a great experience while removing the stigma and legal risks historically associated with consuming cannabis during a live performance," said Cannajam Festival organizer and cannabis defense Attorney Michael Komorn.

Event goers may come and go as they please to visit and support the local businesses and restaurants. Chairs, Blankets, Coolers and anything to make your visit enjoyable are OK.

Tents will be set up with tables and chairs so bring some games if you want.

The event will officially open to the public (adults 21 and over) on Saturday October 8th at 12pm. Live entertainment is scheduled to start at 1:00 p.m. and will continue through 10:00 p.m.

Alcohol sales and use on site are not permitted by state law.
