To be mentioned in the same circles as so many other esteemed designers from across the country is humbling.”

Maggie Tseng

Tseng's rise within the industry hasn't been easy as an Asian woman. She came to the US as an immigrant, charting her own path to success in a competitive industry. Leveraging her drive to succeed, innate cultural IQ, and unwavering love of her heritage, Tseng has successfully built one of LA's most recognizable interior design and home staging firms from the ground up, never compromising her values while overcoming a host of cultural challenges and language barriers.

"I am honored to be a recipient of these two awards," said Tseng. "To be mentioned in the same circles as so many other esteemed designers from across the country, like renowned stager Jason Saft, is humbling. These awards are also a testament to the endless hours I've put in and the struggles I've overcome to grow Hwowz Concept, my dream, into a successful business that others look to as a source of inspiration for their dreams. I look forward to building on this success and creating a legacy that my team and I can continue to be proud of."
