THE FREELANCE SHOP PREVIEW

Knowing how difficult growing a small business can be, Tia Meyers Grado, a freelancer turned entrepreneur, founded Freelancing Females in 2017. It grew from a small group designed to discuss non-payment into 300,000+ global members.

To celebrate their 5-year anniversary, Freelancing Females expanded their offerings to include resources for all freelancers by providing essential templates and resources such as a prospective client template, business card template, rate calculator, and templates from Sprout Law. The first template themes are Funky, Sophisticated, and Sustainable, with new themes to be added each month. In addition, The Freelance Shop will carry a special line of merchandise to show their freelance spirit and act as the perfect gift hub for fellow freelancers.

Whether you're an active member of the Freelancing Females community or interested in learning more, we invite you to visit www.freelancingfemales.com and the new Freelance Shop.
