LOUISVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES,
September 22, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- SoftwareWorld has ranked eLeaP within the company's annual list of the Top 10 LMS for Employee Training and Development in 2022. The list comprises the 10 most feature-rich, flexible, capable LMS options on the market currently, and eLeaP is ranked fifth, with a score of 97 out of 100.

"We're honored to be included in SoftwareWorld's list. Employee training and development are our passion, and we believe we've created one of the best solutions to help our clients lower their investment, create successful eLearning initiatives, and deliver optimum outcomes," explained Don Weobong, President of eLeaP.

SoftwareWorld's list of the 10 best Learning Management System (LMS) in 2022 includes a wide range of competitors, all of which were scored based on a range of criteria, including:

- User satisfaction (determined through reviews and ratings)
- Social media buzz
- Online presence
- Features and capabilities
- Scalability and flexibility
- Ability to automate manual processes

SoftwareWorld is recognized as one of the leading resources for organizations seeking the best

We continue to innovate, build new capabilities, and better align eLeaP with the needs of today's businesses."

ROI on software investments and showcases available options with ratings and reviews to help business owners and decision-makers make informed choices.

Today, 90% of US companies use eLearning platforms, but almost 40% of those are looking to change their learning management system (LMS) with something more agile and better suited to today's needs. eLeaP is committed to offering small and medium businesses (SMBs) and enterprise-level organizations the advantages they require.

"We continue to innovate, build new capabilities, and better align eLeaP with the needs of today's businesses," Don Weobong stated. "eLearning software cannot afford to be static – it's too crucial to organization-wide success. It's about building stronger teams, improving performance to better compete within your industry including the life sciences industry with their 21 CFR Part 11 compliance requirements, and giving employees the means to upskill, all while reducing barriers to learning and development."
