The company is focused on local partnerships to enhance its brand name in the greater Las Vegas area. Top strategic partners T. Edwards productions and Always Dreaming Co. Partnerships will be held as a top priority as the studio has plans to open a self-named creative academy. While details are minimal about the academy, the goal is to become the industry's most trusted creative hub for all those in the entertainment industry.

David Bennett has always explored entrepreneurship by owning a barbershop and being in the field for 10+ years, which untimely lead him to open a music studio in 2018, where he then started music publishing and sound engineering. Da’Kise shares the same entrepreneurship route by opening up a creative art company and music group in 2013, which led him to join forces with Dave to fully push music publishing and engineering.
