EINPresswire.com/ -- The popular US-based scary story listening app Chilling: Scary Horror Stories is proud to announce the addition to their team, the newest narrator, Nichole Goodnight. She joins an already fantastic group of narrators on the Chilling platform. Here unique sound and experience are a welcome addition.

Nichole Goodnight is a New York based voice actor and Twitch Partner. She is known for her work on The NoSleep Podcast, SCP Archives, Insidious Inspirations, and the upcoming game Slay the Princess. She has been voice acting for 12 years and loves being able to bring her own voice and emotion to scripts.

The creators at Chilling want to give their existing community a new reason to stay connected with the platform by bringing in a new team member who is not only well-versed with the horror world but has a genuine passion for scary stories. What makes her narrative so thrilling and hair-raising is that she enjoys narrating scary stories. What makes her narrative so thrilling and hair-raising is that she enjoys narrating her stories so she gives her best in her storytelling. The listeners will be able to feel every emotion and picture every event in the story before their eyes with her extraordinary narration. The scary feeling lingers in the mind for a very long time after the audience listens to her narrated stories.

An impeccable vertical ecosystem for everything horror has been established by Chilling. Scary story lovers no longer have to browse through thousands of stories on various online platforms to find their desired types of horror stories. With the Chilling app, there is a massive community of horror lovers who can interact with each other, share their stories, and listen to audiobooks and podcasts at a very low price. They can add their favorite stories to playlists so they can easily find and listen to them any time they want. Their new narrator Nichole Goodnight is going to present the users with a lot of new options to listen to.

Chilling recently launched an equity crowdfunding campaign on Republic. For the first time, our audience is able to invest directly in Chilling and own a part of this fast-growing community.
