The Silver Employer of the Year Award was bestowed upon OP360 for its agile and proactive approach to nurturing an inclusive culture that advocates for client and employee success. Despite the evolving challenges posed by the pandemic, compounded by the aftermath of Super Typhoon Odette in December 2021, the company persevered in supporting its people and their local communities. Their award-winning entry highlighted

OP360's persistence over the last two years to nurture a culture of employee and client success fueled by shared values of inclusivity and diversity while supporting the needs of its local communities.

“Thanks to the Stevie® Awards for Great Employers, we feel even more driven to stand by the practices that not only empower our people but also add more meaning to our work,” said Chief Customer Officer Aaron Fischer, “this award is especially meaningful because results were partially based on employee votes.”

The Silver Stevie® Employer of the Year Award is OP360's second Stevie® award for the year. OP360 was recently recognized as a Silver Stevie® Winner in the 9th Annual Asia-Pacific Stevie® Awards for the Most Valuable Corporate Response to the Pandemic.
