Market Trends and Drivers:

AI is employed in the automotive industry for manufacturing different vehicle components. This, along with the escalating demand for autonomous, hybrid, and electric vehicles (H/EVs) due to the growing concerns about carbon emissions, represents one of the major factors bolstering the market growth in India. In addition, the rising adoption of cloud-based solutions for analyzing large amounts of data, improving overall operational efficiency, and enhancing the user experience in organizations, coupled with significant growth in information technology (IT), are contributing to the market growth. Apart from this, rapid digitization, expanding purchasing power of individuals, busy lifestyles, and the growing penetration of smartphones with high-speed internet connectivity is driving the demand for online applications. This, in confluence with the thriving e-commerce industry, is creating a positive outlook for the market in the country.
