“We specialize in all things digital. We know that for a busy entrepreneur, making sure their company has the best online presence isn't always at the top of the to-do list,” says Founder Brian McElfresh, “So we take it on for them.”

Consistently delivering the best results and turning searches into sales for their customers is what drives this business. Customers also note Searchalytics' professionalism, transparency, flexibility, creativity and problem-solving as areas that put them ahead of the competition.

“You can tell everyone on the team is an expert at what they do, and they're excited to help small businesses get the word out there to the right people,” says customer and voter, Stuart

Compton.

North Central Florida Media Group, comprised of 93.7 K-Country, 93.7 Outlaw, and Wind-FM radio stations, created this contest for listeners and residents to vote for businesses that have made a difference in the community and dominated their respective industries.

With over 300 categories and thousands of voters, Best of the 352 is a noteworthy accomplishment in North Central Florida. Especially as a young company, Searchalytics is honored to be recognized as the leader in marketing.
