About Mister Glass

Bill Seifert established Mister Glass in the early 1960s. While working for State Farm Insurance, Mr. Seifert saw the need for a glass company that would service vehicles at the customer's preferred location. As a result, Mister Glass was the first company in the Dallas area to provide on-site auto glass repair and replacement. It quickly became the largest independently owned auto glass repair and replacement shop in the region due to unmatched customer service and client relationships. The company continued to grow throughout the '80s and '90s and was passed down to Lawrence Seifert, Bill's son, at the turn of the century. As of 2011, Addison Seifert, Lawrence's son and a third-generation owner, is now involved in the family business. Mister Glass continues to serve the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex and is committed to the original values: of integrity and service. Since day one, their number one priority has been the customer.
