SAE Media Group reports: Conference co-chairs invite you to attend the 2nd Annual Next Generation Pharmaceutical Cleanrooms this October 2022.

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, September 24, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The conference will be co-chaired by Conor Murray, Chairman, Irish Cleanroom Society and Connor McMorrow, Aseptic Lead Cell Therapy, Takeda, in which they have released an invitation letter for all interested parties.

Excerpt of the Co-Chair invitation letter:

'As joint chairs of the 2nd Annual Next Generation Pharmaceutical Cleanrooms Conference, it is our pleasure to cordially invite you to attend this anticipated event taking place on the 5th and 6th October 2022 in London.

'The 2022 conference will bring together expertise from individuals in multiple disciplines of the field. Our packed agenda will offer a series of presentations, through which you will gain insight into the latest Annex 1 and the changing face of regulations, contamination control strategies, and the automated cleanroom of the future, understanding the requirements for cleanroom qualification in ATMPs, and explore novel approaches to cleaning and disinfection.'

'With the cleanroom industry growing exponentially year-on-year, delegates stand to gain a deeper understanding into this important field, as they will discuss the revisions and impacts of the latest Annex 1 on GMP cleanrooms, listen to experts on the implementation of AI, robotics, and automaton as part of the Pharma 4.0, PAT and real time release testing, and discover how industry is responding to the rapid advances in medicines and medical technologies, in
